Section 14.1 of the Health Professions Act:

Responsibility of registrants not affected by incorporation

- 14.1
- (1) The liability of a registrant for professional negligence is not affected by the fact that the registrant practises the designated health profession as an employee of the corporation.
  - (2) The relationship of a registrant to a corporation, whether as a shareholder, director, officer, agent, trustee, contractor or employee of the corporation, does not affect, modify or diminish the application to the registrant of this Act, the regulations and the bylaws.
  - (3) Nothing in this Act affects, modifies or limits any law that applies to the fiduciary, confidential or ethical relationships between a registrant and a person receiving the professional services of the registrant.
  - (4) The relationship between a corporation and a person receiving services provided by the corporation is subject to all applicable law relating to the fiduciary, confidential and ethical relationships that exist between a registrant and the registrant’s client.
