Elder Larry Grant

*Adjunct Professor, First Nations and Endangered Languages Program
Consultant, Musqueam Language and Culture Department at UBC*

Larry Grant was born and raised in Musqueam traditional Territory by a traditional hən̓q̓əmi̓h̓əŋ speaking Musqueam family. He served as Elder-in-Residence at the UBC First Nations House of Learning where he played a key role in educating others about the first peoples who lived here.

Ms. Kim Trottier

Dental Therapist Board Member

Kim is the first dental therapist to join the CDSBC Board. Graduating from Dental Therapy in 2001, Kim works with the First Nations Health Authority and delivers care to Indigenous people living in remote areas of the province.

Mr. Carl Roy

Board Chair

Carl is the former President & CEO of the Provincial Health Services Authority. He brings more than four decades of experience in the health sector, and has worked with multiple regulatory bodies throughout his career.

Ms. Anita Johnson

CPA, Smythe LLP

Anita works with owner-managed businesses and not-for-profit organizations in the areas of accounting, audit and taxation at Smythe LLP. Anita's lasting client relationships fuel Anita's passion for her work.

Dr. Chris Hacker

Registrar/CEO

Chris was appointed to the position of Registrar and CEO in 2018. Under Chris's leadership, CDSBC developed its response to the inquiry by Harry Cayton, authored an ambitious new three-year strategic plan, and created a formal Action Plan that is transforming how CDSBC delivers on its mandate of public protection.

Mr. Harry Cayton, CBE FFPH

Former Chief Executive of UK's Professional Standards Authority

Harry Cayton is a world-renowned expert on regulatory practices. He brings a lifetime of experience as an advisor on professional and regulatory boards. He pioneered the right-touch regulation framework, an approach to regulatory decision-making that has been adopted by regulatory bodies across the world.
