This AGM will also be webcast and available to view across the province. The business to be conducted at the AGM is:

- a. delivery of reports from the President, Treasurer, Registrar and Public Board Members;
- b. presentation of the College's audited financial statements*; and
- c. consideration of advisory resolutions, if any.

Under CDSBC Bylaw 3.16(5), dentists with full registration, restricted to specialty registration, academic registration and academic (grandparented) registration classes, and practising certified dental assistants are eligible to vote at general meetings, present motions, or propose advisory resolutions. Any submissions of advisory resolutions for the AGM should be sent to Nancy Crosby, Manager of the CEO's Office, at ncrosby@cdsbc.org and must be received no later than 30 April 2018. Resolution requirements are set out in CDSBC Bylaw 3.18.

Anyone is welcome to attend the AGM and the open portion of the board meeting.

RSVP to ncrosby@cdsbc.org by Thursday, 7 June if you plan to attend in person. Instructions for viewing the AGM webcast will be posted on the CDSBC website.

*If you wish to receive the audited financial statements in advance of the AGM, please indicate that as part of your RSVP. The financial statements will be available approximately one week before the AGM.
